12. Transparency

All procuring authorities are responsible and accountable to ensure transparency, fairness, equality, competition and appeal rights. This involves simultaneous, symmetric and unrestricted dissemination of information to all likely bidders, sufficient for them to know and understand the availability of bidding opportunities and actual means, processes and time limits prescribed for completion of registration of bidders, bidding, evaluation, grievance redressal, award and management of contracts.

It implies that such officers must ensure that there is consistency, predictability, clarity, openness, equal opportunities in processes.

13. Fall Clause:

Fall clause is a price safety mechanism in rate contracts. The fall clause provides that if the rate contract holder reduces its price or sells or even offers to sell the rate contracted goods or services following conditions of sale similar to those of the rate contract, at a price lower than the rate contract price, to any person or organization during the currency of the rate contract, the rate contract price will be automatically reduced with effect from that date for all the subsequent supplies under the rate contract and the rate contract amended accordingly.

The provisions of fall clause will however not apply to the following:

- i. Export/Deemed Export by the supplier;
- ii. Sale of goods or services as original equipment prices lower than the price charged for normal replacement;
- iii. Sale of goods such as drugs, which have expiry date;
- iv. Sale of goods or services at lower price on or after the date of completion of sale/placement of order of goods or services by the authority concerned, under the existing or previous Rate Contracts as also under any previous contracts entered into with the Central or State Government Departments including new undertakings (excluding joint sector companies and or private parties) and bodies.

14. Price Variation

A suitable price variation formula should also be provided in the tender documents, to calculate the price variation between the base level and scheduled delivery date.

15. Risk Purchase

If the empanelled partner fails to adhere to the quality norms, delivery schedules and other terms and conditions contained in this Tender after acceptance of purchase order and if no agreement is reached on the revised delivery schedule maximum up to 15 Business Days, then buyer shall have the liberty to procure the material from an alternate source at the Empanelled partner's risk and cost, and the Empanelled partner shall be liable to make good the loss incurred by Buyer in this process

16. Indemnity:

The empanelled partner to indemnify ITI from any claims / penalties / statutory charges, liquidated damages, with legal expenses etc as charged by the customer. LD/ Penalties incurred on account of delay in supply, product failure during warranty if any and deficiency in Warranty and AMC services attributable to the partner shall be borne by the partner All terms and conditions of the customer tender/PO will be applicable to the empanelled partner on back to back basis without affecting the margin of ITI.

17. Arbitration:

Any dispute arising out of this EOI shall be settled and resolved by any such Authorized person appointed by Chairman and Managing Director of ITI Limited.

18. Set Off:

Any Sum of money due and payable to the supplier under this contract may be appropriated by the purchaser or any other person contracting through the ITI and set off the same against any claim of the purchaser for payment of a sum of money arising out of this contract or under any other contract made by the supplier with the purchaser.

19. The interested partner may like to discuss the customer tender related information, EOI Bidding Conditions, Bidding Process and clarifications, if any with the Deputy General Manager-Marketing

20. Intellectual Property Rights:

- i. All deliverable, outputs, plans, drawings, specifications, designs, reports and other documents and software submitted by the contractor under this contract shall become and remain the property of the procuring entity and subject to laws of copyright and must not be shared with third parties or reproduced, whether in whole or part, without the procuring entity's prior written consent.
- ii. The contractor shall, not later than upon termination or expiration of this contract, deliver all such documents and software to the procuring entity, together with a detailed inventory thereof.
- iii. The contractor may retain a copy of such documents and software but shall not use it for any commercial purpose.

21. Language of offers:

22. In the event that ITI is required to provide demonstration or working of the product to their buyers, the same shall be arranged by the bidder selected partner/OEM at latter's cost and expenditure.

23. Cost of EOI:

The bidder shall bear all costs associated with the preparation and submission of his offer against this EOI, including cost of presentation for the purposes of clarification of the offer, if so desired by ITI. ITI will, in no case be responsible or liable for those costs, regardless of the conduct or outcome of the EOI process.

24. Purchaser's Right to accept any bid and to reject any or All Bids or to cancel the EOI: ITI Limited reserves the right to accept or reject any bid, and to annul the bidding process and reject all bids, at any time prior to award of contract without assigning any reason whatsoever and without thereby incurring any liability to the affected bidder or bidders on the grounds of purchaser's action.

25. Amendment of EOI:

At any time prior to the last date for receipt of offers, ITI, may, for any reason, whether at its own initiative or in response to a clarification requested by a prospective bidder, modify the EOI document by an amendment. In order to provide prospective bidder reasonable time in which to take the amendment into account in preparing their offers, ITI may, at their discretion, extend the last date for the receipt of offers and/or make other changes in the requirements set out in the Invitation for EOI.

26. Disclaimer:

ITI and/or its officers, employees disclaim all liability from any loss or damage, whether foreseeable or not, suffered by any person acting on or refraining from acting because of any information including statements, information, forecasts, estimates or projections contained in this document or conduct ancillary to it whether or not the loss or damage arises in connection with any omission, negligence, default, lack of care or misrepresentation on the part of ITI and/or any of its officers, employees.
